All Sessions: 11 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Hosted by Madonna University, this special series is designed to improve classroom interpreting skills, while preparing participants for the EIPA assessment.

Who Should Attend: interpreters working in K-12 classroom settings, community interpreters, future interpreters, K-12 interpreter mentors, deaf educators and individuals supervising or working with interpreters.

Sessions will be offered nationwide via video conferencing technology to multiple sites. Participants ask questions via email and through on-site moderators. (Bring your laptop or email-enabled phone for best experience.)

Made possible with the generous support of the Michigan Department of Education, Low Incidence Outreach

An Overview of Interpreting for Students with Cochlear Implants November 12, 2011

The recent innovations in cochlear implant technology have changed the role of the interpreter in the classroom. During this video conference we will share information that will assist us in beginning a nationwide discussion regarding "best practices" when working with students that have cochlear implants. We will explore the perspectives of interpreters, teachers, students and other professionals.

Classroom Classifiers: What's the Best Classifier to Represent a Concept? March 24, 2012

How many times does a concept come up in a lesson and you can't come up with the right classifier to convey the proper concept? This video conference will cover classifiers used to convey a variety of concepts that one frequently encounters in K-12 science and geography/social studies classrooms. We will cover classifiers for all grade levels.

Sign-to-Voice Interpreting: Working With a Variety of Child Signers January 14, 2012

This video conference will cover techniques that are required to effectively interpret for a variety of child signers utilizing different sign modalities. We will discuss the skills necessary to deliver an effective interpretation that reflects the child's content, register and communicative intent. We will view sign models across all ages in the K-12 setting.

Preparing to take the EIPA Written Test April 14, 2012

This training will assist educational interpreters to prepare for the EIPA Written Test. The discussions will encompass a comprehensive overview of the information that is critical to the success of interpreters working in education settings.
